

Suggested Summer Reading for Incoming First Grade:

Dr. Seuss – Ten Apples Up On Top

Green Eggs and Ham

P D Eastman – Are You My Mother

The Best Nest

Flap Your Wings

Dave Pilkey – A Friend for Dragon

Dragon's Fat Cat

Mo Willems – Elephant and Piggy books

Arnold Lobel – Frog and Toad books

James Dean – Pete the Cat

Syd Hoff – Danny the Dinosaur books

Sammy the Seal books

Cynthia Rylant – Henry and Mudge books

Mike Thaler - Black Lagoon books

Ted Arnold – Fly Guy books

Kate DiCamillo – Mercy Watson books

Marjorie W. Sharmat - Nate the Great books

Alyssa Satin Capucilli – Biscuit books

Actually, any book your child is interested in reading themselves, with an adult, or the adult reading is a good book. The practice and examples of good reading are ways to set up a child for good comprehension and a love of reading.